Joint action plan to tackle naxalite problem

t l296. SHRI BHAGWATI SINGH:
SHRI BRIJ BHUSHAN TIWARI: SHRI
JANESHWAR MISHRA:

Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that incidents of attacks by Naxalites have been continuously on rise in the recent times;

tOriginal notice of the question was received in Hindi.

if so, whether it is also a fact that the State Governments have continuously failed to curb the attacks by Naxalites;

if so, whether Government is formulating any joint action plan to tackle the naxalite problem; and if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI SHRIPRAKASH JAISWAL): (a) to (d) The details of naxalite incidents during the last five years are given below:

	2003	2004	2005	2006	2007
Total number of incidents:	1597	1533	1608	1509	1565
Total number of casualties of security forces:	105	100	153	157	236
Total number of casualties of civilians:	410	466	524	521	460

Law and order being a State subject, action with respect to various aspects/issues related to naxalite activities lies primarily in the domain of the concerned State Government.

State Governments conduct need-based inter-State joint police operations. A Task Force under Special Secretary (Internal Security), consisting of officers of intelligence agencies, State police forces and Central paramilitary forces, deliberates upon the gamut of operational steps needed to deal with the naxalite activities and facilities cordination between authorities of different States as may be necessary.

Special attention on planning, implementation and monitoring of development schemes is also being emphasized. An Inter Ministerial Group (IMG), under Additional Secretary (Naxal Management), with officers from development Ministries and Planning Commission, oversees effective implementation of development schemes in naxalite affected areas for accelerated socio-economic development.

The Central Government supplements the efforts and resources of the concerned State Governments by a variety of measures that include deployment of Central paramilitary forces which work under the control of the State Government concerned, sanctioning of India Reserve battalions, assistance for strengthening of the State Police and Intelligence agencies under the Scheme for Modernization of State Police Forces, re-imbursement of security-related expenditure, assistance in training of State police forces, sharing of Intelligence, facilitating inter-State coordination and assistance in development works through a range of schemes of various Ministries, including various income-generating, public-utility and social-security schemes of Ministries like Rural Development, Agriculture, Youth Affairs and Sports, Panchayati Raj and Tribal Affairs.

Taking steps as appropriate and necessary, having regard to the situation obtaining, is a continuous process.
